

Bury St Edmunds Golf Club

Byelaws (Rev June 24)

1. INTRODUCTION

These Byelaws have been made by the Business Committee and by the Golf & Membership Committee in accordance with the Constitution and Rules.

All Members, guests and visitors are expected to comply with the Byelaws. Members are responsible for all the actions and appearances of their guests.

The Business Committee and the Golf & Membership Committee periodically review Byelaws. A current copy will be displayed on the Main Noticeboard. Additional copies are available from the club office.

A Committee may add to, delete, or amend these Byelaws, temporarily or permanently. It must publish a notice of the change on the main Noticeboard.

Enforcement of the Byelaws is the responsibility of ALL Members.

Organisers of societies and visiting groups are responsible for persons within their group.

Club Byelaws should be read in conjunction with the Club's Constitution & Rules, a copy of which is in the club office.

2. HEALTH & SAFETY

The Club has a Health & Safety Policy that is displayed on the Noticeboard. Members should familiarise themselves with the document in order that they may take all reasonable steps to protect themselves and other persons whilst on Club premises.

Members and visitors must treat staff and contractors with dignity and respect.

Playing golf on the Club's courses or practice grounds is conditional upon the person's acceptance of the inherent risks and hazards. The person is responsible for his/her own safety and the safety of those in the vicinity. The person agrees that neither the Company, nor the Club, nor their staff will be liable for injury or loss except where the cause is culpable negligence by the Club.

The Club may, but is not obliged to, close either course or the practice grounds to prevent damage to them or because the playing conditions present a risk. But this Byelaw does not absolve a person from being solely responsible for his/her own safety.

3. ELECTION OF MEMBERS

Membership Application & Induction Procedures, Bury St Edmunds Golf Club

In no circumstances will any priority be established by any of the following:

Membership of the Club and the use of Club facilities shall be open to anyone interested in the sport of golf on application regardless of sex, age, disability, ethnicity, nationality, sexual orientation, religion or other beliefs.

Induction Objectives:

Bury St Edmunds Golf Club seeks to ensure that all new members have:

Respect for the values of Bury St Edmunds Golf Club

Ability to play without causing undue delay

Knowledge of the rules and etiquette

1. Applications must be made in writing on the standard application form available from, and returned to, the secretary's office in person, website or by email.

2. The membership application process and all decisions about membership applications have been delegated by the Golf and Membership Committee to its Marketing and Membership Sub-committee ("M&MC") which reports to the Golf and Membership Committee.
3. The M&MC is authorised by the Golf and Membership Committee ("G&MC") to delegate specific membership application issues to the General Manager.
4. The M&MC shall manage membership numbers in accordance with Rule 8.2 of the Club Constitution and Rules in conjunction with the General Manager.
5. All applications shall be reviewed monthly by the General Manager who shall decide (as per paragraph 6. below), how to proceed. The progress of all applications through the system will be monitored by the M&MC at their meetings.
6. The review process in 5. above allows for 3 eventualities:
 - 6.1 In the event of full membership, applications may be added to a waiting list.
 - 6.2 Where a player has no current handicap index & CDH number an invitation to attend an applicant's playing assessment programme, see 7. below. At this point applicants should be advised of 2 possible outcomes, see 7.1 and 7.2.
7. The New Members playing assessment programme should be carried out by the Professional who advises the General Manager. That Professional should decide with the induction objectives in mind to:
 - 7.1 Invite the applicant to proceed with their application.
 - 7.2 Recommend that a combination of lessons and practice on the 9-hole course.
The club professional shall have absolute discretion to manage the process in 7.2 and vary the price of published tariffs.
8. Once completed and re-assessed by the Pro Shop the applicant may then progress to 7.1.
9. The decision(s) of the M&MC are considered final. They will report at six monthly intervals to the G&MC on their operation of the system. Applicants who are successful will be invited to become members of the Club and to participate in the ongoing induction organised by the M&MC.
10. All correspondence on application matters should, for consistency, be signed off by and addressed to the General Manager or his deputy and copies retained on file.
11. Decisions on the wording of public notices regarding the availability of memberships by signage or on the Club Website shall be agreed by the General Manager and M&MC.
12. In the event of the number of new applications taking numbers above the total optimal limit, priority will be established by the date of receipt of the application.

However, the M&MC may exercise discretion in favour of the applicant's existing handicap index or the category of membership. Where such discretion is exercised the reasons must be recorded.

5. COMPETITION RULES

The Rules of Golf and Golf Equipment of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St Andrews shall apply with the addition of any permissible Local Rules made by the Golf and Membership Committee. Local Rules shall be printed on the scorecard and posted in the Club House.

Bury St Edmund's Club Championship

All members are entitled to enter this competition, but the winner will be a member who has designated Bury St Edmunds as their home club for handicap purposes, and also qualifies under the rules 5b.

Knock Out Match Play Competitions

- a It is the responsibility of all competitors to acquaint themselves with the draw sheets.
www.burystedmundsgolfclub.co.uk and on club noticeboards.
- b Entry into Board and knock-out competitions is restricted to those members who hold a handicap Index and in the previous rolling 12 months prior to the closing date of the competition have completed the following:
From 2023 onwards entrants must have submitted 12 cards in the previous rolling 12 months, either to the closing date for entries for knockouts, or the competition date for Strokeplay events. These cards need to be made up of a minimum of 3 competition cards from Bury St Edmunds Golf Club events and 9 others, either competitions or casual rounds.

For new members joining during the year competition cards from their previous club will count.
All 3 cards submitted must total 54 holes
All 9 cards submitted must total 162 holes
- c All competitors should approach the arrangement of ties with fairness and flexibility.
- d Competitors should be available to play both weekends and weekdays. If you cannot do this, you must seriously consider whether you should enter the draw.

- e All competitors are responsible for ensuring matches are completed within the stipulated time.
- f Extensions will only be granted for course closures due to bad weather-
Substitutions may be made for a partner at the Committee's discretion and before the completion of the first round.
- g Prior to the start of each match, competitors must agree on the form of resolution in the event of a draw. This must be sudden-death play-off, or a replay. Sudden-death play brought to close by bad light will continue from the point play stopped once play begins again. (in the case of a sudden death play-off, a competition can filter in on the first tee).
- h The winners of each match are responsible for entering the result on the draw sheet by the closing date for that round. In the absence of any result being entered on the draw sheet by the closing date of that round, both sets of competitors will be eliminated.
- i If a course closure due to inclement weather happens, the closing date will be extended by one week for that particular round. If the closure is longer than a week a notification will be emailed by the pro shop to all members.
- j If a match is not completed by the closing date of a round, both sets of competitors will be eliminated.

Procedures for arranging a match:

- a Top player[s] MUST contact the bottom player[s] within the first week of the draw being published, or within the first week of the previous round ending.
- b They should offer at least 4 dates to play the match, including 2 weekdays (not in the same week) and 2 weekend dates (not in the same weekend).
- c The bottom player[s] is expected to accept one of these dates, or to negotiate a date acceptable to all players.
- d In extreme situations, the committee's representative i.e.: the professional will use and enforce.
- e If the bottom player[s] have not been contacted within the time at 5 a), they should report this to the Professional, and offer dates as in 5 b. The Professional will contact the top player[s] and offer these dates. The top player(s) MUST accept one of these dates or forfeit the match.

Stroke Play Competition

- a Competitors in Stableford and par competitions must pick up their ball when no points can be scored, or the hole is lost.
- b Ties in scratch stroke play competitions will be decided in accordance with the Competition Rule for that event.
- c Ties in handicap stroke play competitions will be decided as follows: 36-hole competitions – best score on the last round or count back in the following order 10 – 18, 13 – 18, 16 – 18, 17 – 18 and 18.
- d A member unable to participate in a competition for which he/she has entered should give notice to their partner and/or opponent and, in stroke play competitions, the Professional. Failure to notify the Professional in competitions for which a starting sheet has been posted may, at the discretion of the Handicap and Competitions Subcommittee, result in a ban of up to three months from competitions. No further entries will be accepted after the entry closing date.
- e Full details of the conditions for all competitions including methods of deciding ties and allocating prizes will be posted in the Pro Shop or Club Office.
- f A member, who has chosen a tee time, may not withdraw from that tee time and play in the same competition at an alternative time in the day.
- g In a competition that includes both published tee times and free play, then free play is only permitted after the published tee times.
- h Each competition is covered by its own specific rules and reference should be made to those rules.

6. HANDICAPS

- a Handicaps are administered in accordance with England Golf World Handicapping System.
- b Where a handicap limit applies to a competition, then this will be shown in the individual Rules for that competition. This will normally be shown on the Competition Entry Sheet.
- c A copy of individual competition rules is held in the Pro Shop and Club Office.

Score Cards

- a All markers must hold a current handicap index & CDH number from an affiliated club.
- b Juniors may not mark scorecards for players unless they are also competing.

Prize Funds

For most Competitions 50% of the total entry fee is allocated to the general prize fund used to buy medal prizes, replica trophies, cup engraving and board signwriting.

From the balance, individual monetary prizes allocated, and these are limited to a maximum of £25 for a single round event. For longer events including matchplay knockout events the maximum prize is limited to £50.

7. JUNIORS

- a Safeguarding Children & Young People: The Club has a Safeguarding Children & Young People Policy & Club Welfare officer information available to view on Bury St Edmunds Golf Club website www.burystedmundsgolfclub.co.uk or copies available from the office. The Club Welfare officer's contact details and the SafeGolf certificate are on the club noticeboard.
- b The Pro Shop will designate a Junior Organiser and be the initial contact for Junior related matters. They will hold meetings with an Action Group consisting of club members and parents, with the CWO invited to all meetings.
- c The Club Rules and Byelaws shall govern all junior members except where specifically excluded.
- d The G&M committee is the final arbiter for all matters of Junior Membership and discipline.
- e Junior Competitions: a player is prohibited from using a caddie. The G&M committee may give some dispensation on medical grounds.
- f Junior eligibility for entry into Club Competitions:
